Earthly Crowns Like Tennis Balls

1Pet. 5:4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

"Earthly crowns are like tennis-balls, which are bandied up and down from one to another, and in time wear out.

When time shall be no more,

when earthly crowns and kingdoms shall be no more, yes, when the world shall be no more — the Christian's crown of glory shall be fresh, flourishing, and continuing!"

(Thomas Brooks "A Word in Season to Suffering Saints" 1675)
